Tom Reed Took a Carriage.

A tall, portly, dignified citizen arrived in New York the other day and having no luggage but a light traveling satchel was utterly oblivious to the appeals of the hackmen.

"Fee-thvanoo hotel? Fifth avanoo—gon' ritaway! Fifth avanoo?"

Mr. Dignity stalked right on without a word. Another charged down upon him.

"Say, Denis! Say Denis? This way for the Say Denis?"

No response from the traveler. Then there was a rush of half a dozen.

"Kerridge, sir, kerridge! Want kerridge?"

"Waldorff Astories! Take a kerridge for the Waldorff?"

"Holland house, sir!"

"Hoffman house? Hoffman?"

"Broadway Central? Right on Broadway. 'Ere you are, kerridge, sir?"

The traveler loomed up like a ten pin among vinegar cruet, and with a face as placid as a pan of milk was calmly and silently moving away.

Suddenly a thought struck one of knights of the whip, who ran after the portly gentleman, and seizing his traveling bag cried:

"Don't and dumb asylum, sir? Go in' right up!" This was too much.

Dignity relaxed into a cherubic smile and the witty hackman had the honor and profit of driving Thomas B. Reed, ex-speaker of the house of representatives to his home.

Reasons for Lean Christmases.

They own Bibles, but feed on newspapers.

They sing about peace, but do not surrender to get it.

They pray that the kingdom of heaven may come, but block the way by worldly living.

They listen to sermons on unselfishness, but pamper themselves in food and dress.

They wear crosses, but shrink from bearing them.

They praise Christ with their lips, but declare the things He did to be wholly impracticable now.—Golden Rule.

Slips of the Pen.

Los Angeles Herald.

There is no glue that will mend a broken reputation.

There is no soap that will cleanse a soiled character.

There is no net that will gather in wasted time and opportunity.

Language, signs, music, art, have all vainly tried to depict love. Only a life of devotion and service can properly express it.

Housekeeping isn't much of a track.

Pay your rent and you can keep the house just as long as you want it.

Cats on the Hunt.

New York Sun.

Central Park is suffering from an epidemic of cats, not wild ones that may be put in cages and exhibited, but ordinary domestic tabbies. Matters have gone so far that it is a common sight to see three or four of them at a time sneak across some of the thoroughfares bordering the park and, leaping the wall, vanish into the shrubbery. The purpose of their incursions is to hunt after the squirrels, blackbirds and robins that thrive in the park and add so much to its attractiveness. Their owners close up and go away in the hot weather, leaving the felines to starve. The cats would be shot but the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will not permit it.

Life of the Dark Side.

Two or three years ago, Dr. Max Nordau wrote a book entitled "Degeneration," which made quite a sensation for a time after its publication. It has now dropped out of notice, the impression being merely temporary. Men are not naturally pessimists. A habit of looking on the dark side is an indication of physical or mental disease. Humanity in good health is optimistic, forgets the misfortunes of past and looks cheerfully forward to better things in the future.—Christian Advocate.

NEWS OF THE RAILWAYS.

The Rock Island's proposition for cheap rate excursions to and from Colorado during this summer has been negatived by the Western Passenger Association. In consequence notice was served yesterday on Chairman McLeod by General Passenger Agent Sebastian that the Rock Island will take independent action and put in effect a rate of one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip from Chicago and all intermediate points east of the Missouri river to Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Salt Lake City and Ogden. Tickets at this rate will be sold on June 28, July 9 and 17 and August 1, from Missouri river points the same rate will be made on the days following those dates. Tickets at this rate also will be sold from Missouri river gateways, Kansas City to Omaha, inclusive, on July 7, 8 and 9. Four special excursions will also be run by the Rock Island from Colorado common points to Chicago and intermediate stations on June 27, July 12 and 30 and August 4. These excursion tickets, both east and west bound, will be limited for return passage to October 31. The Rock Island announces its intention of placing in service special trains for these excursions, leaving Chicago at 5 p. m. and making the run to Colorado with only one night on the road.—Chicago Tribune.

THIRCE-A-WEEK EDITION.

The Most Widely Read Newspaper in America

Time has demonstrated that the Thrice-a-Week World stands alone in its class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells all the news all the time and tells it impartially, whether that news be political or otherwise. It is, in fact, almost a daily at the price of a weekly and you can not afford to be without it.

Republican and Democrat alike can read the Thrice-a-Week World with absolute confidence in its truth. In addition to news, it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fireside.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the INTELLIGENCER together one year for $1.75.
